

Programme: 2023 Roger Casement Summer School

Friday 5 May

11 am – 12.45 pm Shaping a New and United Ireland - Professor Colin Harvey

2 pm – 3.45 pm The Legacy and Achievements of Niamh Bhreathnach –
Remembered by Tom Ferris and long-time education correspondent, John Walshe

4 pm – 7 pm Sustainability and Human Rights of Indigenous Peoples –
Dr Wannette Van Eg Dom-Tuinstra
Dismantling Colonial Archives during the Amazon Rubber Boom - Dr Angus Mitchell.
Screening of Secrets of Putumayo.

Saturday 6 May

10 am – 12 pm Pioneering women writers and the Irish Women Writers' Club (1933-58) - Deirdre Brady.

Pioneering women publishers: Elizabeth C. Yeats and the Dun Emer Press at Dundrum (1902-1908) - Dr Caoilfhionn Ní Bheacháin. Chair - Deirdre Black, Heritage Officer, Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Council.

Reading from Winning Essay in Casement Essay Competition - Eva Elmes

12 pm – 2 pm Lunch Break with entertainment at the Casement Statue –
Capoeira (Brazilian martial art) workshop, Congolese performer - Koko dia Nzombo, Piper John Lambe playing traditional tunes

2 pm – 4 pm Casement, James Joyce and Hannah Arendt - Professor Luke Gibbons
Was Casement Right to be Pro-German in 1916? - Dr Philip O'Connor

4 pm – 5 pm Break

5 pm -6.20 Fragments of Casement's Life in Story and Song (Snáthaid snáithe)
Performer - Michael McCaughan

6.30 pm Launch of Irish Version of 'The Casement Memorial Statue' (Dealbh Cuimhneacháin Mhic Easmainn) by Angus Mitchell published by Dun Laoghaire Rathdown Council, followed by reception

Finish 9 pm