

EBLANA FORUM

The
discussion, debating & literary society

ALL HAPPENING in the EBLANA CLUB, 3 Eblana Avenue, Dún Laoghaire.

THURSDAY 25th JANUARY commencing at 7.30p.m.

Has America a human rights deficit ?

©2017 No Bounds www.nobounds.org.uk | Creative Commons License: I Am Hip-Hop Magazine work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License.

Mansoor Adayfi is the author of "Don't Forget Us Here: Lost and Found at Guantánamo", a memoir of the 14 years he spent in the prison at the US naval base in Guantánamo, Cuba. His imprisonment was the result of a large bounty being paid; he had no political or terrorist involvements. His book has been described as simultaneously harrowing, hilarious and full of humanity. His mission in life is to speed up the release of the small number of prisoners still detained there. Mansoor has made many Irish friends around the world while pressing for the closure of Guantánamo. He will be in Ireland for only a few weeks: his talk should not be missed!

Saturday 20th January - EBLANA SESSIONS - trad. session from 7.30p.m.

Saturday 27th January - Annual Robbie Burns/Scottish night commences at 7.30p.m.

Thursday 1st February - OPEN FORUM

on "what has gone wrong with the Gardaí, army and naval service ?" Speakers include Stephen Moore, an ex-Garda /OUT OF THE BLUE and Michael Murphy, former Assistant Director of Intelligence with the Irish army. 7.30p.m.

Book your seats now on eblanaclub@gmail.com

All welcome.